"LENOX LIBRARY - LATE AFTERNOON"
Giclee prints of an original pen & ink illustration by Jack Sadoway of Lenox, Massachusetts.

Scanned and printed by Ditto Editions, fine art digital printmakers of Salem, Massachusetts, directly from the original under the artist's supervision using a $20,000 digital scanning back that reads the original artwork pixel by pixel, resulting in an incredibly detailed, color-matched digital record which is then transferred by an Epson Stylus Pro 9800 ink-jet printer onto a specially-treated, 100% cotton fine art paper by Innova with Epson UltraChrome K3 pigments, offering the widest color gamut available today. All materials have been tested to 125 years without fading or color shifting from UV degradation under normal lighting conditions, the highest industry standard.

The resulting archival giclee print captures every nuance of the original in stunning detail and color.

*Each print in the Collector's Edition and
